HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 733
By Dunn

A RESOLUTION to congratulate Amy Bullard of Knoxville upon being named a Distinguished Finalist in the Prudential Spirit of Community Awards program.

WHEREAS, Amy Bullard, an energetic and respected young resident of Knoxville and a senior at Karns High School, has achieved national recognition for exemplary volunteer service by receiving a 2002 Prudential Spirit of Community Award designation as a Distinguished Finalist; and

WHEREAS, this prestigious award, presented by Prudential Financial in partnership with the National Association of Secondary School Principals, honors young volunteers across America who have demonstrated an extraordinary commitment to serving their communities; and

WHEREAS, a highly intelligent and resourceful 17-year-old student, Ms. Bullard earned her designation as Distinguished Finalist by creating "The Generations Project," which arranges pen-pal relationships between elementary school children and elderly residents of an assisted-living center; and

WHEREAS, the success of the State of Tennessee, the strength of our communities, and the overall vitality of American society depend, in great measure, upon the dedication of young people like Ms. Bullard, who use their considerable talents and resources to serve others; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, That we hereby congratulate and honor Amy Bullard upon being designated as a Prudential Spirit of Community Award Distinguished Finalist and recognize her outstanding record of volunteer service, peer leadership, and community spirit.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That we extend to her our best wishes for her continued success and happiness.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
